

HMDT
music
ENSURING A MUSICAL FUTURE
PRESENTS

Brighton
Dome

TRENCH BROTHERS®

Life, hopes and fears, a longing for home, camaraderie, courage and valour.

MUSIC: JULIAN JOSEPH & RICHARD TAYLOR
LIBRETTO: TERTIA SEFTON-GREEN

A new music theatre work commemorating in Brighton the contributions of ethnic minority soldiers during the First World War through music, theatre and puppetry.

Featuring:
Multi-award winning jazz vocalist Cleveland Watkiss
Acclaimed baritone Damian Thantrey and actor Richard Sumitro
250 children from local schools
The Julian Joseph Jazz Academy
Jasdeep Singh Degun Classical Indian Duo

Directed by Clare Whistler and Freya Wynn-Jones
Conducted by Lee Reynolds
Designed by Neil Irish

BRIGHTON DOME, CHURCH STREET, BRIGHTON BN1 1UE

7pm WEDNESDAY 17 OCTOBER 2018

PRE-PERFORMANCE TALK WITH THE CREATIVE TEAM AT 5:30PM

Tickets £12.00

www.brightondome.org 01273 709709

Funded by

HMDT TRENCH BROTHERS®
music
ENSURING A MUSICAL FUTURE

HERBERT MORRIS
A STORY OF YOUNG PATRIOTISM
Only 16 when he volunteered for service, Herbert Morris was stationed in Flanders close to the front line. Despite clear symptoms of shell shock, no medical report was sought when he was arrested after being caught absent without leave.

INTERACTIVE EXHIBITION

A creative response to the hidden stories of ethnic minority soldiers in the First World War

4 AUGUST - 4 NOVEMBER 2018

AT NEWHAVEN FORT

FORT ROAD, NEWHAVEN BN9 9DS 01273 517 622

SUPPORTED BY A PROGRAMME OF EVENTS INCLUDING:

5 Aug	2:00pm	The History behind the Trench Brothers Story Dr Chris Kempshall
19 Aug	10:30 – 12:30pm	Take Cover Drama Workshop for 8-13yrs Director Freya Wynn-Jones
	1:00 – 4:00pm	Make a Poppy or Sopwith Camel
	All Day	Nursing at the Front: join Nurse Peggy as a new recruit
13 Sept	7:00 – 8:30pm	The Trench Brothers Project Creative Director Tertia Sefton-Green
15 and 29 Sept	2:00pm	Make a Trench: Art workshop Artist Matt Edwards

For more information contact: www.newhavenfort.org.uk

www.hmdt.org.uk 020 8882 8825

Funded by LOTTERY FUNDED